

2- SSH connections

With the name cleared, come the second needed configuration settings needed to ensure standardized network reliability. This refers to Secure Shell (SSH). In compliance with ISA 62443 standard, Telnet was disabled to prevent clear-text credentials exposure. Furthermore, Management Plane Protection across all infrastructure nodes via Access Control Lists, restricting VTY lines access exclusively to the Engineering WorkStations located in the IDMZ (Zone 3.5).